During the week ending 11 September 1993, the Security Council took action on the following items:

The situation concerning Rwanda (see S/25070/Add.10 and S/25070/Add.25)

The Security Council resumed its consideration of the item at its 3273rd meeting, held on 10 September 1993, in accordance with the understanding reached in its prior consultations.

The President of the Security Council stated that, following consultations among members of the Council, he had been authorized to make the following statement on behalf of the Council (S/26425):

> "The Security Council welcomes the peace agreement concluded by the Government of Rwanda and the Rwandese Patriotic Front at Arusha on 4 August 1993. The Council is aware of the hopes the Rwandese parties entertain that the international community will lend its assistance in the implementation of the agreement. It has also taken note of the importance they attach to 10 September 1993, the date that is to mark the establishment of transitional institutions.

"The Security Council welcomes in this regard the decision taken by the Secretary-General to send a reconnaissance mission to Rwanda. The Council hopes to have the report of the Secretary-General based on the recommendations of the reconnaissance mission in the next few days so that it can consider the contribution the United Nations could make to facilitate the implementation of the Arusha peace agreement.

"The Security Council urges the Government of Rwanda and the Rwandese Patriotic Front to continue to honour the Arusha agreements in accordance with their commitments. It further urges them to continue to cooperate with the Neutral Military Observer Group, whose mandate the Secretary-General of OAU has decided to extend on an interim basis."
